

Etude Lyrics

“AUTUMN” IS AN INSTRUMENTAL ETUDE BY JIM SNIDERO, AND I LIKE PRACTICING SINGING THE MELODY ALONG WITH THESE ADDITIONAL LYRICS THAT I WROTE:

Now... you're... gone... and so I recall... all the moments we shared... when Autumn leaves fall down!

(1st chorus)

Summer is over... The leaves of brown fall down on the ground and I can hear the sound of the song I used to sing – but now it's too late...
to hope you'll sing it along... with me again my darling...
In June, July, and August we kissed
Your kisses were so hot and so sweet
Autumn came along, September brought me chills
And now I feel so cold!
Without you, my darling
Without you I can't go on, dear
Without you... I know I wish I'd die...
I know that I will soon go mad Without you...
These autumn leaves will soon turn to dust,
Your kisses were so long ago – well, I know
But I still miss you so!

(2nd chorus)

These autumn leaves are driftin' by my window pane And I know... Your love for me has flown away,
What can I do now?
But I just can't live without you... I'll go maaad!

Etude Lyrics

Yet all is over! Ev'rything's over now, can't you see?

MaYbe when Summer comes I will be loving Again...

But until then I can only weep on what's gone...

I'll never... ever... ever... loved a... man just the way

I used to love you!

How could you leave me here so cold & lonely? When I die for you...

I shiver in my bones, thinkin' of our love!

The wind is blowing, red leaves that fall on the ground

Remind of the way that I fell for you
